

9th INTERNATIONAL ART EXHIBITION FOR PEOPLE WITH AUTISM

“HAPPY TRAVEL THROUGH COLORS”

Cracow, 7th to 9th October 2022

PARTICIPATION FORM

Since 1997 Autismo Burgos has organized the International Art Exhibitions of People with autism, whose aim is stimulating creativity and artistic expression among people with autism. Only digital photos of the works will be shown, not the original ones. The public will have the opportunity to see the works and vote for them on the Internet prior to the Exhibition in Cracow during the Autism Europe's Congress.

• Participation rules:

Format:

- Works (paintings) must be original and unpublished.
- The number of works is limited to one per participant.
- In this edition the format of the painting must be square
- The organizers will arrange a virtual (on line) exhibition since April 2022 (the link to it will be available in www.autismoburgos.org) so participants will have to send digital photos of their works. During Autism Europe's Congress the works will be shown in slides and reproduction in paper.
- Photos of the works must be sent by e-mail, (in .jpg or .png format). The file name must be the name of the artist and it must be a high quality, file whose size must be between 2 and 3 Mb, the minimum resolution of the image must be 800 x 600 pixels (we recommend 1024 x 768), please avoid reflections in the photos.
- Awards: 3 "ARTISMOS" (a wooden figure made by Autismo Burgos) awards to the most on line voted works will be announced, and the winner's work will illustrate the announcing poster for the next edition. The Organisers will certify the participation of those who ask for it.
- Deadline. Participation forms and digital photos must be sent by e-mail to Autismo Burgos (fernando@autismoburgos.org), before 31st March 2022
- Warning about fraudulent votes: to avoid these practices Autismo Burgos may remove the benefited work from the exhibition.
- By sending this participation form, participants express their acceptance of these rules. The organizers may show the photos on any event they consider, previously informing the participants.
